Agenda - Art 2030 - For the future!

CALL FOR CREATIVE WORKS IS OPEN – APPLY NOW!

Art 2030, For the future! - The series of creative works will be composed of seventeen (17) works by children and young people. A creative work can be dance, visual arts, music, performance, poem, circus act, environmental art, virtual reality, sound and light art, video, story, installation, etc. In other words, everything that can be regarded as art.

Creative Works is for young people and children under the age of 26 living in the Nordic countries. The presenter can be a young professional, an art enthusiast, a group of friends, a school class or a hobby group from any field of art. You can participate with an existing or a new piece of creative work.

The most important aspect is that the creative work will explore one or more of the UN Sustainable Development Goals in relation to the future and the future prospects of the young artist.

The selected art works will be presented on social media in October 2022, on the Agenda - Art 2030 series website, and the series will be compiled for the exhibition. The main location of the exhibition will be the premises of the Nordic Culture Point in Suomenlinna, Helsinki and the other offices under the Nordic Council of Ministers.

Curation will be organised through open and anonymised call. The Call for Creative Works intends to find the creative works related to sustainable development goals and future prospects. The exhibition will be implemented taking into account and preparing for the current COVID-19 regulations.

A prize of EUR 300 (less any taxes) will be awarded to the creative works selected for the series. The rights and the ownership are retained by the artist.

The proposal should include the following sections:

- 1. Title of the creative work.
- 2. Form/structure of the creative work, materials, size, duration of the creative work and its weather resistance, technical implementation and needs of hanging/erection of the creative work, estimated time required for the presentation of the creative work, other specific needs for the presentation of the creative work. Any attachment illustrating the creative work: images, videos, audio (link, e.g. YouTube or similar). The author(s) of the creative work will be responsible for the execution of the creative work in accordance with this description.
- 3. A brief description of the creative work and its goals so that the creative work is presented through the goals of Agenda 2030 - The Sustainable Development Goals. You can present through single or multiple aspirations. What are the goals of sustainable development that the creative work responds to or takes a stand on? How do the future and future life look like, where what is now perceived to be bad is well? The goals of sustainable development can be found here www.agenda-art-2030.com/sdgs/
- 4. Contact information for the creative work: address (country), telephone number. No name(s) of author(s).

The Call for Creative Works ends on 30 April 2022 at 11:59 p.m.
